THE FIRST MOVE

POLISH NEGOTIATIONS WITH RUSSIA.

LONDON, August 12. The first move in the Russo-Polish negotiations materialised in the Polish Foreign Minister yesterday evening telegraphing to the wireless station mentioned earlier stating that the Poles had despatched parliamentaires to come to an understanding with the Russian command.

A COOL STOWAWAY.

AIR OF DISTINCTION.

Whilst the "Great Northern" was at Honolulu quite a stir was caused amongst the Congressional party aboard by the appearance in their midst of a stowaway who carried himself with an air of distinction and gained the ship's deck by the simple experiment of passing himself off as belonging to the Party.

He was a youth of 21 years and also brought his baggage along with him. Upon getting aboard he ensconced himself in a quiet corner of the lounge behind a daily paper but upon the ship-leaving-he came out on deck, leaned over the ship's rail on the saloon deck and looked for all the world as though he "was of the party." When the ship was several hours out he gave himself up to the Purser. After being brought before the Captain he was placed to work with the sailors. It is said that the youth is a relation of a high family in the U.S. and storged himself away in the Great Northern" to see something of the world. At any rate one of the party of Congressmen offered to-pay his passage which the lad refused to allow. Shanghai Gazette.

-EARLIER TELEGRAMS

(Rauter's Service to the China Mall.) FRANCE SUPPORTS GENERAL

.The French Government has decided to recognise General Wrangel's Government as the de facto Government in Southern Russis. A French Diplomatic Agent will be sent to Sebastopal with the title of High Commiswildly French Commercial Attache in London to have no relations with M. Kameneff and M. Krassin.

Paris, August 11th Villa declared that he surrendered because further fighting in Mexico meant The decision to recognise General Wrangel implies rendering all possible assistance. France notified Mr. Lloyd George of its decision vesterday. General Wrangel is meeting with considerable success in turning the Coseacks against the Soviet. The French believe that General Wrangel shows more promise of over-throwing the Bolsheviks than the Poles, The Senate election results were: - Conservatives, 14; Radicals, 8; Denikin or Koltchak.

LONDON, August 11th. The news of the French recognition of General Wrangel has caused a sensation in London. The question is being asked whether it means that Great-Britain and France are as flatly at variance again as they were on the occasion of the French occupation of Frankfort.

The Premier, in his speech in the House of Commons, pointed out that British aid to General Wrangel will only be given in the event of the Minsk negotiations breaking down owing to the Bolshevik terms being impossible, whereas the French statement implies that all possible material aidwill be rendered to General Wrangel immediately, whatever happens at Minek. The gravity of the decision need not be emphasised. It means that France is openly at war with the Soviet. The French have evidently been encouraged to take this step by General Wrangel's recent suchis own accounts, he has been sweeping the Red armies before him.

The Boishevik communiques, on the other hand, are confined to the statement that heavy fighting is going on the whole front in our favour.

PARIS, August 11th. A message from Warsaw, bearing no date; states that the Council of National Defence has discussed measures for the defence of the capital and offered to the French General Weygand the supreme command. It is believed that General Weygand will accept it on the condition of the temporary evacuation of Eastern Galicia and the district of Lublin and subject to the approval of the Powers.

WARSAW, August 11th The Council of National Defence has served an impassioned proclamation denythe accusations that Poland is imperialistic and declaring that Poland, since the moment that the world recognised her independence, has been continually faced to fight for her life. The proclams. tion warns the nations of the world that if Polish freedom dies, to-morrow their free dom will be threatened. WASHINGTON, August 11th The State Department has addressed a Note to the Italian Ambassador, replying to the Italian request for its views on the Polish question, which declares that the United States believes in a united and free Poland and the people of the United States are carnestly solicitous to maintain Poland's independence, but the Government cannot at present participate in the plan for the expansion of the armistice negotiations into a general European conference, which will probably involve the recognition of the Bolshevik The Note expresses confidence that the Russian people will evercome the existing anarchy, suffering and destitution.

WASHINGTON, August 12th. The Government is awaiting the outcome f the Minsk negotiations before determining the nature of the steps required to redeem the pledge given in yesterday's Note to support Polish integrity. Diplomatic circles regard Italy's selection as the recipient of the Note as an adroit way of giving her friends warning against the political ecognition of the Bolsheriks.

The Note promises help in the restoration of Russia provided that the latter refrains from the pillage and oppression of the Poles, and requests the withdrawal of all troops to Russia proper, excluding Poland and Finland. The statement adds that neither Poland, Finland or any other Power will be permitted to transgress Rusman territory.

LONDON, August 11th. The declaration of the American State Department on Russia is largely discounted by the political deadlock in America which has rendered the Administration powerless, but the document is criticised anyhow as Laodicean comprising scarcely LONDON, August 11th. The Labour Council of Action sent ern," which left for San Francisco on the Russian crisis, and intimated that August, is the largest vessel ever to Labour was strongly opposed to any direct come to Shanghai; she is a triple or indirect war against the Bolsheviks. Mr. Lloyd George asked: In the event an average speed of from 18 to 25 of a Bolshevik attempt to crush Polish independence and the Allies sending a single pair of boots to Poland, would Labour strike!

Labour stood for an independent Poland. A member of the deputation requested that facilities may be given for an interview hetween the Russian and the Polish

The Premier pointed out that the pro posal was entirely against diplomatic objection to the deputation sending M. Kameneff their views in writing, seeing that

"KLONG" KIDDIES.

No happier children live than the laughing, water-splashed, sun-kissed kiong" children of Siam.

Born in the little attap-roofed huts that stand on wooden stilts over the klonga (canals), the ripple of the waters is the first sound that greets their baby ears, their first crawl is towards its edge:

Meanum (Mother of Waters) sends her klongs throughout the country, making a miniature Venice of the East, and on their banks live a large number of the population. Shaded by palms, screened by a tangle of: flowering creepers, the sun streams through the foliage on to these picturesque riverside homes where from dawn to dusk children play in the dappled water."

Little youngsters of three and four swim like fishes with their elder brothers and sisters, laughing and splashing away at their games. Up to the age of six or thereabouts their plump brown bodies know no stitch of clothing, and they tumble about in the sun and the klong like groups of healthy, jolly puppies. Even after that age they are little hampered with garments, a loin cloth being their sole wardrobe. Schooling bothers them not at all Such things as "home lessons," white plnafores, clean hands, and tidy hair never disturb their long sunny days of play, and the girls have as unfettered a time as their

The children become expert sampan pilots, balancing their lithe bodies on the narrow edge of the boat like bronze statues.

Astride a raft of bamboos or a log of teak, they fight their miniature battles and go sailing down stream, foraging in the jungle for mangoes and bananas, climbing the rambutan trees after the prickly red fruit, decking themselves with brilliant flowers.

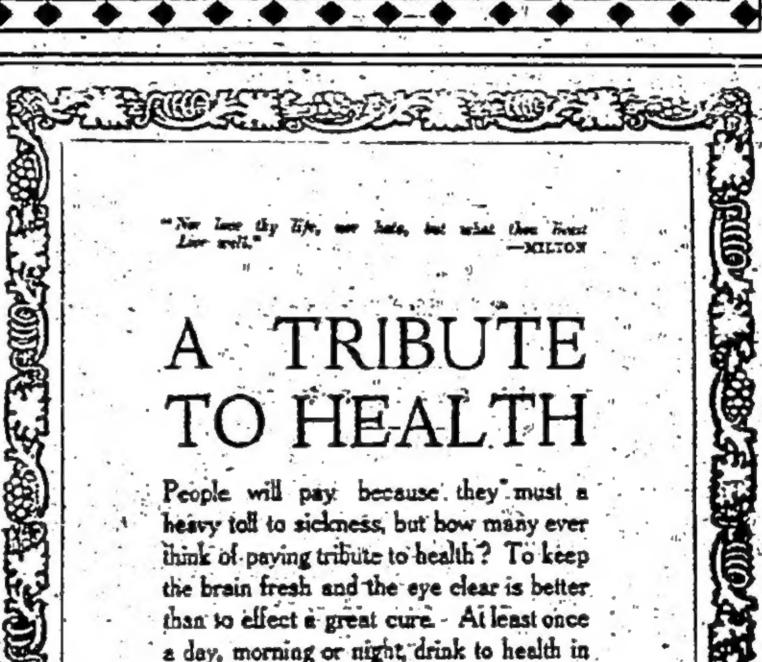

While their parents took wearily on at the rising waters during the season of heavy rains, the Koungsters are in their glory, salling along on their improvised rafts, shricking with delight as the rain beats down on them and the wind upsets their

Full of pranks, their love of mischief has full play at the river markets, where they nose their raffa n among the small junks and same pans, climbing from one boat to another, chasing each other among the noisy bartering natives.

When the sunset turns the klongs into fleeting harbours of rose and gold, the last splash of the day is taken. Everyone bathes at that hour. Women wallow up to their necks in the turbid streams, while the children swim around, and down the steps come old men and women to pour water over themselves with a dipper."-Hilda M. Love in the

seemed to draw as much applause from the moderate Labourites as from his own

The same impression is gathered from papers of all shades of opinion with uncompromising exceptions. Mr. Lloyd George, undoubtedly diagnosed public opinion correctly in febuking Poland, for while that country andoubtedly possessed a large measure of sympathy it was generally considered that some drastic corrective to her policy towards Russia was necessary. It is now felt that the Bolsheviks will be given an opportunity to demonstrate the practical value of their repeated pacific assertions. All eyes are turned towards Minsk, the results of which will probably largely determine Allied relations towards Russia in the future, but optimism prevails as it is felt that the Bolsheviks will have the commonsense to see the advisability of meeting the Allies' views.

LONDON, August 11th. The fateful Eleventh of August when the Poles and Russians should have met at Minsk to begin pourparlers passed without the delegates coming into contact. According to Bolshevik allegations, the Poles ignore the Soviet radios, while the Poles similarly blame the Russians for the fact that the delegates did not meet, Russian Note, sent to wireless to Warsaw to-day, which M. Kameneff handed to Mr. Lloyd George, says that the Russian command waited in vain for the Polish delegation at the place indicated in the recent Soviet Note to Poland. The Note requests that the Poles advise the date of the delegation's arrival and states that all facilities Goods not cleared by the 18th August would be provided for the Polish couriers and radios, and that the Russians are ready to begin negotiations. POLICY OF THE COLONIAL

In the House of Commons, Colonel J. C. Wedgwood raised a question on the general policy of the Colonial Office. He said he feared that we had recently departed from the old traditions and the Colonial Office had a natural bias in favour of the settler class and the exploitation of countries rather than of assuming the attitude of blind justice of the old administration. This was serious in view of the fact that new constitutions were being granted to British East Africa, Rhodesia and Ceylon. Other members followed similar lines of

DUTCH EAST INDIES.

The opulent beauty of Java and Sumatra, etc., is well brought out in the Year Book of the Netherlands East Indies, a handsome book for which we have to thank the Consul-General for Holland. The full page photographic pictures of Java would play Pied Piper to any man of taste having money and time; they would leave him no choice as to destination. Perhaps this attractive quality was aimed at by the editor, for the work is quite different from the usual stodgy, statistics-packed year book of other countries, and takes on some of the complexion of a tourist persuader. TEACHERS' PAY.

[To the Editor of the "China Mail."]

Dear Sir.-I am glad to notice from yesterday's leader that the China Mail is championing the cause of our under-I was delighted to have your nice paid teachers. But surely you have a 2/- dollar which would mean that A special prize, a consolation one, they start at a salary of $208 per is being given to Edna Batalha be- month and rise after 10 years' service £187.10 to £340 by £10 yearly

Of much more importance however is your second point. Shanghai Municipal Council is offering 2871 tacks per month for assistant masters with the same qualincations as are required here. Now at an Exchange of 70 this makes $410 per month, while in Hongkong our generous Government gives £400 per year at a 2/- dollar, or $333 per month. After five years, service a schoolmaster in Hongkong will be earning nearly as much as a newcomer to the Model Settlement.

I should not be the least surprised to hear of teachers from Hongkong going North, and on top of a whisper that is going round, that several masters are to be lent to the University" to enable that institution to carry on. Our Education Department might quite possibly be faced with the question of shutting down some of its schools.-

with a bad" cold and cough. She had a box of yellow jujubes on the table by the side of her bed and when she opened the box to take one to stop her tickly cough she found that three or four had stuck together. "So she ate three and put the fourth on the lid of the box to have later on and then tenzediy.

She happened to look at the lid of the box and was surprised to see that there were bright points of light on the jujube, twinkling like stars. On looking closer she saw that there were rows of windows with lamps hangingwas a door opened wide.

Then Audrey found that by closing cone eye and nearly shutting the other she could, see through a door into a room, the walls of which were covered with yellow fairy lamps. The floor was polished so that it was like glass and ever so many tiny fairies were dancing on it. At one end of the room there was a yellow satin throne and on this sat-We the King and Queen. They were like the little yellow jujube dolls that you cover from where the sound came. After a time she noticed that the fairies had limie bells sewn all over their frilly muslin frocks which tinkled as they moved and this was the music to which they danced.

The King and Queen were talking very busily "with their heads close together. They had the tiniest voices Yes my dear, it is time that we moved again. This jujube palace is very comfortable in the summer but the walls are much too thin for the winter months and the wind will come whistling through them."

"You are right as usual, my honoured ford," replied the Queen, " and if I may make a suggestion—' But at this the King got up and said in a loud voice, " Off with her head." All the fairies stopped dancing so suddenly that several of them fell over backwards on the slippery floor and Audrey laughed out loud.

The next minute of the lights went out in the jujube palace, the doors shur with a bang and not a sound was heard

THE MOTOR-BUSES AT CANTON.

THE OIL ENGINE ARRIVES

The announcement was recently made that motor-buses, ordered by the Kwangtung Tramway Co. have arrived in Canton, A local firm of Chinese engineers are said to be assembling the vehicles and the motor bus service is 'Thy to be inaugurated. This; natural sequel the disappeara. If the ancient city walls. No doubt crowded mechan cally-propelled vehicles will race round the roads which now cover the foundations of the city walls. With the utmost respect for the local Chinese engineers who are assembling the vehicles, and the local Chinese Engineers who have built roads in Canton, we are inclined to believe that there will be much jolting and jarring and other excitements for the motor bus passengers; also many discomforts from which the ordinary rider in a motor-bus England is spared. Probably our readers are well aware that the Chinese themselves are not greatly critical of the things which we think impleasant. They will be so amazed at the sight of the petrol-driven buses that they will not worry much about details such as jerks and bumps or even noisy exhausts and smells. Some of these are associated in our minds with the early petrol-engined faces us is this. Will there be vehicles in Great Britain. IF YOU have that constant itching and inflammation of Piles All these are sure signs of clogging blood impurity, calling for immmediate treatment through the blood, so don't waste your nime and money on useless lotions and measy cintments, which cannot get below the surface of the skin. What you want and what you must have is a medicine that will get right to the root of your trouble, a medicine that will thoroughly free the blood of the poisonous matter which alone is the true cause of all your suffering. Clarke's Blood Mixture is just such a medicine. It is composed of ingredients which quickly attack, overcome, and expel from the blood all impurities (from whatever cause arising), and by rendering it clean and pure, can be relied on to effect a lasting cure.

The True Value of CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE is certified by a most remarkable collection of unsolicited testimonials from grateful patients of all classes-patients who have been cured attor doctors and hospitals have given them up as incurable patien s who have been cured after trying many other trestments without success—patients who not only have been cared of the particular Bkin or Blood Complaint from which they were suffering, but also have found great improvement in their general health.
